

Interviewing & Hiring During COVID: FAQs

During this pandemic, our goal is to ensure the safety of our candidates and new hires along with providing an exceptional experience. Below are FAQs to help guide you through the interview and hiring process.

Is S&P Global hiring?	Yes. Please check our career site for the complete list of our current openings.
What is the current hiring process?	S&P Global has shifted its interviews, onboarding, and nearly all stages of the hiring process to a virtual setting. <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Tip: Ideally, you should have access to a stable internet connection, a device with a good camera and microphone (please notify your recruiter if you require assistance or help as this is not mandatory), and a private space free of distractions. Not much else has changed; <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Once you have applied through our careers site, you will receive a confirmation email that your application has been received. If your experience and qualifications meet the requirements of the job description, you will receive an email or call from a recruiter.– Your recruiter will be your point of contact to guide you through the interview process If you receive an offer for employment, you will meet with the recruiter virtually to discuss your offer, the pre-employment requirements and the onboarding process.
How can I check the status of my application?	You can still reach out directly to your recruiter or check your workday notifications for updates.
How is S&P Global supporting its employees during the COVID 19 outbreak?	During these volatile times, the safety and wellbeing of our people remains our top priority. “Our People First” culture puts our employees at the center of everything we do by providing all the required Benefit & Flexible Work Arrangements to ensure our people and their families are finding ways to maintain good mental and physical health.
Will I need to relocate during the pandemic if I am hired for a role not at my current location?	You will not be asked to relocate until it has been determined safe to reopen your respective office. Please connect with your recruiter on relocation timing.