

Automatically extract and spread data from Images and PDF financial statements, including scanned documents with ProSpread™

Financial statements delivered via PDF require repeated and extensive manual effort to extract and spread relevant financial data points for analysis. Don't let the logistics of extracting data get in the way of interpreting insights. ProSpread, powered by Credit Analytics, can do the heavy lifting for you by leveraging Natural Language Processing combined with Optical Character Recognition.

Save valuable time while gaining new insights.

Eliminate the time consuming process of manual input of financial statement data into your tools with ProSpread, a powerful workflow tool for extracting and analyzing data:

- Multi-Format Image Support – Upload financial statements, including scanned documents in PDF format, and ProSpread will extract and spread what you need.
- Multi-Language Support – Upload documents in English, Dutch, German, Polish, and Turkish.
- Continuous Learning – ProSpread learns as the user cycles through individual financial data points to edit, reassign, or confirm matches.
- Save and Upload – Spread extracted financials into your proprietary data store by leveraging S&P Capital IQ platform's proprietary data framework, assign to an existing company, or create a new one.
- Score Company – Leverage the Credit Analytics suite of analytical models to score companies with extracted financials.

Access ProSpread on the award winning S&P Capital IQ platform.*
