

Worldwide Financial Institutions

A single source for accurate data and advanced tools to evaluate financial institutions across the globe.

Enter a New Era of Speed, Accuracy and Automated Ease for Worldwide Financial Institution Analysis

It's not easy to evaluate institutions across the globe. You face numerous languages, currencies, sources and incompatible standards, requiring manual data entry and institutions languages, standards, translation.

S&P Global Market Intelligence offers an integrated suite of data and tools (FIG) that provide resources vital to the long-term health of your institution.

We now provide a single online source for accurate data on worldwide banks in standard formats. Our templates and instant currency conversion automate individual bank evaluations and apples-to-apples peer comparisons. You can access financial statements, ratios, and multiples, plus press releases available within hours of publication, for timely analysis. You can also leverage our click-through functionality and review detailed footnotes for most line items.

Different industries report financial items in various ways. Leverage our standardized, industry-specific financial statement templates for in-depth comparisons.

Our Commitment to Delivering Reliable Information Comes Down to One Word: Transparent

Daily Point-in-Time Database

View true point-in-time analysis that helps you understand available data in a given point-in-time for more reliable multiples and valuation analysis.

Deep, Differentiated Data

Different industries report financial items in various ways. Leverage our standardized, industry-specific financial statement templates for in-depth comparisons.

A Single Platform for Essential Intelligence

Completeness: No More Searching Multiple Sources

S&P Capital IQ Pro (FIG) is your single source for multinational and intra-country analysis from large banks and their subsidiaries to non-listed banks to central and development banks as well as insurance companies and Non-Bank Financial Institutions. We have exclusive data you won't find anywhere else.

Standard Formats: Easy Multinational Peer Comparisons

Our exclusive formats align U.S. GAAP, IFRS, J-GAAP, PRC and other country-specific fields to simplify analysis across institutions worldwide. Quickly compare capital ratios, asset quality, liquidity and profitability for banks on any continent.

Transparency: Click-through Access to Source Documents

With source tagging, you simply click on a number to see the original source document, in its original language or translated, with the exact line item highlighted. "Ratio dissection" lets you see how we calculate a specific metric.

High Data Quality: Numbers You Can Trust

We gather data from multiple sources and scrub it for accuracy. Our 3-tiered data approval process includes 15,000 automated error checks plus manual inspection.

Create refreshable models, access pre-built templates, discover Excel screening, and more: all with one-click refreshing. That's the power of the S&P Capital IQ Pro Office add-in.

Timeliness: Know Sooner

We publish public company data within 5 days of issue and typically within 24 hours for the world's largest banks.

Financial Institutions in the Asia-Pacific Region

Transforming Asia-Pacific intra-country and multinational analysis.

Our Asia-Pacific coverage facilitates both in-country and multinational analysis, providing the first single source for data on Asian banks, in standard formats, plus news and analytics. Our interactive platform eliminates time-consuming manual entry, translation and currency conversion.

Standard Formats Plus Recognition of Each Country's Uniqueness

A hallmark of our approach is the recognition of the reporting formats and methods unique to each country or sector while facilitating peer-to-peer comparisons with data in standard templates.

Included in our Asia-Pacific coverage are over 550 data items and ratios, in a standard format that aligns IFRS, Japanese GAAP, PRC and other country specific fields.

Easily compare financial institutions in India or China to banks in Japan, Indonesia and Australia. Click on any figure to access the original source document.

Comprehensive M&A and Issuance Data

We track comprehensive M&A data for e.g. banks, with minority interest deals and relevant industry pricing metrics. This database includes full deal profiles and linked deal documents. Track equity capital issuances or assess a bank's debt maturity position. Assess M&A or branch development strategies with interactive mapping tool.

In-Depth Analysis Made Easy

Our coverage is in a unified format with easy menu-based access. Instantly compare key ratios and perform national, regional or global peer analysis with ease. Detailed financial metrics range from tier 1 components to net interest margin and asset quality. Look at reports such as Balance Sheet by Type and Class, P&L, Components of Regulatory Capital, Interest Yield/Cost, Loan and Deposit Composition, and more.

Detailed country profiles that include macroeconomic and banking sector data, as well as regulatory overview on multiple jurisdictions, help you understand key regulations by country. Rankings, sovereign ratings and profiles of recent deals and offerings give you a full picture of each market.

Gain financial insight into the Asia-Pacific region not previously possible with other data sources. Our news combines proprietary industry reporting and analysis with summaries of regional financial institution news, translated from local sources.

Financial Institutions in North America & Latin America

From Wall Street to Main Street, professionals count on our data to make sound decisions.

From publicly traded mega-banks in the U.S., Canada and Latin America to privately held local institutions, we cover the full range of banks in the Americas. Our database includes detailed profiles on more than 14,000 active and 45,000 historical U.S. financial institutions: banks, thrifts and credit unions. In addition to the U.S., users can also access data-points within the financial statements filed with Mexican and Colombian bank regulatory agencies—Comisión Nacional Bancaria y de Valores (CNBV) and the Superintendencia Financiera de Colombia (SFC) respectively.

Timely Strategic Indicators for Operators and Investors

We give you instant access to the data you need to identify opportunity, lift performance and reduce risk. Our data is timely, comprehensive and easy to use.

Track metrics critical to a bank's success such as credit quality, credit concentration exposure and liquidity. Estimate your bank's value and evaluate M&A deals with our valuation data and models. Price your asset and liability products based on real-time competitive data including Loan Rates.

Fine-Tune Bank Performance Against Key Ratios

Our coverage of key metrics makes it easy to make peer comparisons. Use benchmarks like product pricing, loan mix, net interest margin and efficiency ratio to fine-tune your own performance and plan competitive strategies.

Chart exactly how you compare with your peers on key metrics like ROAA, NIM and NPAs/Assets using apples-to-apples templates. Choose from our pre-built peer groups or build a custom peer group.

Take Full Advantage of Your Branch Footprint

The S&P Capital IQ Pro platform gives you instant access to the data you need to evaluate your branch network and make the most of it based on geographic, demographic and financial factors. Create instant bank footprint maps with layered demographic data to envision your strategies. Overlay market data to target customers and prospects based on profit potential. Identify opportunities to open new branches or consolidate. See the effects of a merger, acquisition or divestiture.

A Streamlined Approach to Regulatory Reporting

Spend less time preparing for regulatory examinations. Identify regulatory red flags and take preemptive action. Our tools have become an essential aid for our clients in meeting the challenge of greater scrutiny, including Basel III and capital levels. From loan portfolio analysis to credit risk, quickly identify key risks and potential problems compared to your peers. Plot trending of key metrics.

Breadth of Financial Institution Coverage

Aside from banks, we offer the same depth of coverage of insurance companies and non-bank financial institutions (e.g. detailed Form ADV coverage of US asset managers and X-17 coverage of US brokers.)
