About IHS Maritime & Trade

IHS Maritime & Trade is the trusted source of maritime and data, research, analytics and consulting services, with a global customer base of over 8,000 commercial and public sector organisations. Our capabilities and expertise enables our customers to manage complex global supply chains profitably, efficiently and safely.

IHS is the sole originating source for assigning IMO Ship and Company numbers; only IHS has the world's largest and most comprehensive maritime and trade datasets, and an information and research heritage spanning over 250 years.

IHS Maritime & Trade's core capabilities include:

- The world's most comprehensive database of vessels, 100 GT and over
- The world's largest network of land-based and satellite AIS receivers providing real-time coverage of live vessel positions
- The largest database of bilateral trade statistics covering 85 countries and over 90% of total global trade
- PIERS database of US waterborne imports and exports at highly-granular bill of lading level of detail

The combination of these capabilities, in addition to data modelling, macroeconomic and industry expertise across IHS, enables IHS Maritime & Trade to provide unique analysis and forecasts addressing strategic issues for our customers. These include detailed forecasts of global trade by commodity and transportation mode, shipping fleet capacity and freight rate forecasts, and the creation of bespoke market studies for clients in support of specific industries, regulatory or investment requirements.

The IHS Maritime & Trade portfolio is made complete with the provision of market-leading publications and websites including the Journal of Commerce, IHS Maritime Fairplay, JOC.com, and the Official Register of Railroad Equipment (ORER), as well as industry-leading conferences around the world including TPM, attended by over 2,000 delegates annually.

IHS Maritime & Trade's origins can be traced back to 1764, through the Lloyd's Register of Ships. In 2009, IHS completed the acquisition of Lloyd's Register Fairplay, followed in 2014 with the acquisitions of Global Trade Information Services and the JOC Group, enabling the creation of this unique and integrated perspective on global trade and the maritime industry that empowers it.
