Re: Confidential Credit Assessment for ABC SPV

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your request for a S&P Global Ratings confidential credit assessment, we have performed an abbreviated review of the relevant information furnished to us relating to the above-referenced Class A, B, C and D notes. Based on those materials and without the benefit of a more extensive analysis or meetings with any of the parties involved that are integral to our standard rating process for obligations such as the Class A, B, C and D notes, and, subject to the enclosed Terms and Conditions and to the qualifications set out in this letter below, S&P Global Ratings has assigned a confidential credit assessment of:

Class	Indicative Rating	Balance (€)	Credit Enhancement	Coupon
A	aaa (sf)	300,000,000	22.6%	Euribor 1M + 0.5%
B	aa (sf)	24,600,000	16.1%	Euribor 1M + 0.8%
C	a- (sf)	22,000,000	10.3%	Euribor 1M +1.25%
D	bbb (sf)	12,900,000	6.9%	Euribor 1M + 1.85%
E	NR	26,200,000	-	4%

as explained further in the enclosed report ("Report").

This is a confidential point-in-time credit assessment as of the date set forth above ("Effective Date"). S&P Global Ratings does not maintain surveillance on the credit assessment and will not review or modify the credit assessment after the Effective Date. An assessment any time after the Effective Date could be different.

The credit assessment in no sense represents a rating and should not be represented as a rating. The credit assessment does not imply an indicative rating of financial obligations that may be issued in the future secured on the Class A, B, C and D notes, or on the Class A, B, C and D notes themselves. Further, in the event that an actual rating is issued by us on financial obligations secured on the Class A, B, C and D notes, or on the Class A, B, C and D notes, such rating would be based on a complete review of the transaction, and it may be higher or lower than the credit assessment.

The credit assessment may not be used to distribute or underwrite debt. The Credit Assessment, including this letter and the Report, is provided by S&P Global Ratings to you on a confidential basis. You may not disclose the Credit Assessment, including this letter or Report, to third parties except (i) as required by law or regulation, or for regulatory purposes, or (ii) to third parties that are bound by appropriate confidentiality obligations; and in each case, only in accordance with law and in its entirety (including this letter, the enclosed Terms and Conditions and the Report) without any changes.

We are pleased to have had the opportunity of being of service to you. If we can be of any further help, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

Very truly yours,

S&P Global Ratings Terms and Conditions Applicable To Credit Assessments

You understand and agree that:

General. The credit ratings and other views of S&P Global Ratings, including, without limitation, credit assessments ("Credit Assessments"), are statements of opinion and not statements of fact. Credit ratings and other views of S&P Global Ratings are not recommendations to purchase, hold, or sell any securities and do not comment on market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security. While S&P Global Ratings bases its credit ratings and other views on information provided by issuers and their agents and advisors, and other information from sources it believes to be reliable, S&P Global Ratings does not perform an audit, and undertakes no duty of due diligence or independent verification, of any information it receives. Such information and S&P Global Ratings' opinions should not be relied upon in making any investment decision. S&P Global Ratings does not act as a "fiduciary" or an investment advisor. S&P Global Ratings neither recommends nor will recommend how you or an issuer can or should achieve a particular credit assessment or credit rating outcome nor provides or will provide consulting, advisory, financial or structuring advice. To the extent permitted by applicable law, you will be liable to S&P Global Ratings and its affiliates for all Losses actually incurred and directly resulting from (x) a claim relating to S&P Global Ratings' provision of the Credit Assessment or (y) a claim that the provision by you or your authorized agents and advisors of information to S&P Global Ratings hereunder infringes or violates the intellectual property rights of a third party. Not a credit rating. A Credit Assessment is not a credit rating and should not be represented as a credit rating. A Credit Assessment is S&P Global Ratings' view of the general credit strengths and weaknesses of an issuer, obligor, a proposed financing structure, or elements of such structures. It may also pertain to limited credit matters or carve out certain elements of a credit that would ordinarily be taken into account in a credit rating.

Dissemination. The Credit Assessment, including any related letter or report, will be provided by S&P Global Ratings to you on a confidential basis. You may not disclose the Credit Assessment, including any related letter or report, to third parties except (i) as required by law or regulation, or for regulatory purposes, or (ii) to third parties that are bound by appropriate confidentiality obligations; and in each case, only in accordance with law and in its entirety without any changes. A breach of your obligations under this paragraph shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement. If S&P Global Ratings suspends or withdraws the Credit Assessment, you shall cease all use and dissemination of the Credit Assessment. If a Credit Assessment is disclosed other than in accordance with this Agreement or subsequently becomes public other than by an act of S&P Global Ratings or its affiliates, S&P Global Ratings reserves the right to suspend or withdraw the Credit Assessment, publicly comment on the Credit Assessment and/or publish any related letter or report. Notwithstanding the foregoing, information disclosed by you or your authorized agents and advisors to S&P Global Ratings shall not be deemed to be Confidential Information, and S&P Global Ratings shall have no obligation to treat such information as Confidential Information, if such information (i) was known by S&P Global Ratings at the time of such disclosure and was not known by S&P Global Ratings to be subject to a prohibition on disclosure, (ii) was known to the public at the time of such disclosure, (iii) becomes known to the public (other than by an act of S&P Global Ratings or its affiliates) subsequent to such disclosure, (iv) is disclosed to S&P Global Ratings by a third party subsequent to such disclosure and S&P Global Ratings reasonably believes that such third party's disclosure to S&P Global Ratings was not prohibited, (v) is developed independently by S&P Global Ratings or its affiliates without reference to the Confidential Information, or (vi) is approved in writing by you or your authorized agents and advisors for public disclosure. ## Important Qualifications

The indicative rating is based on preliminary information. Due to the fact that certain key points addressed in our traditional credit rating analysis are not known at this time, the final conclusions may differ significantly. For example, the following key areas of analysis have not been presented or fully addressed and many of these key areas could have a significant impact on S&P Global Ratings' conclusions:

- Legal and tax analysis review;
- Review of final documentation and legal opinions;
- Review of the representations and warranties provided by each transaction party;
- Review of a third-party audit report (AuP) on the securitized portfolio;
- Identity of all transaction participants, including any credit support providers;
- Review of interest rate hedging agreement;
- Review of any permitted investments;
- Our assessment of counterparty risks; and
- Our assessment of operational risk associated with key transaction parties that provide an essential service to the transaction, including the servicer.

A Credit Assessment in no sense represents a rating and should not be represented as a rating. A Credit Assessment is a preliminary indicator of creditworthiness that may be expressed in a broad rating category. It provides an evaluation of the general strengths and weaknesses of an issuer, obligor, a proposed financing structure, or elements of such structures. It may also pertain to limited credit matters or carve out certain elements of a credit that would ordinarily be taken into account in a credit rating. A Credit Assessment represents a point-in-time evaluation and S&P Global Ratings does not maintain ongoing surveillance on Credit Assessments. A Credit Assessment is confidential.
