S&P New China Sectors Index Series Consultation on the Index Universe

In recent months, several U.S.-listed Chinese companies have added secondary listings on the Hong Kong Exchange (“HKEX”). In order to allow for greater flexibility and the potential inclusion of HKEX secondary listings, S&P DJI is considering modifying the index universe for the S&P New China Sectors Index Series. The table below summarizes the proposed change.

IMPLEMENTATION TIMING

S&P DJI is proposing to implement the previously described methodology changes, if adopted, in conjunction with the next rebalancing which takes effect prior to the market open on Monday, June 21, 2021. If adopted, the change will first be visible to clients in pro-forma files beginning on Friday, June 11, 2021.

QUESTIONS

Please answer the following questions and provide S&P DJI with the reasoning behind your answers:

1. Do you agree with the proposed change to the index universe of the S&P New China Sectors Index series?
   - Yes, apply the change to the entire index series.
   - Yes, apply the change to the S&P New China Sectors Index only.
   - Yes, apply the change to the S&P New China Sectors Ex-A-Share Index only.
   - Yes, apply the change to the S&P New China Sectors (A-shares Capped) Index only.
   - No, do not change the index universe for any index in the series.

2. If you answered “Yes” in question 1 above, do you agree with the proposed minimum trading history requirement for Hong Kong secondary listings?
   - Yes, a minimum three-month trading history is appropriate.
   - No, a different trading history requirement is preferable (specify in question 4 below).

3. If the proposed change is adopted, do you agree with the proposed implementation date?
4. Do you have any other comments or feedback regarding the proposed change outlined above?
