

S&P Thematic Indices Consultation on Eligibility Criteria and Index Construction – Extended

NEW YORK, MAY 31, 2019: S&P Dow Jones Indices (“S&P DJI”) is conducting a consultation with members of the investment community on potential changes to the S&P Global Clean Energy, S&P Global Timber & Forestry, S&P Global Eco, and S&P Global Water Indices.

In order to allow for an enhanced universe of potential candidates for index addition, S&P DJI is considering bringing these indices in line with traditional Environmental, Social, and Governance (“ESG”) principles.

Currently, the four indices are designed to be pure play thematic indices, measuring the performance of companies focused on clean energy, water power generation, distribution, and technology, environmental & facilities services, waste management and ownership, and management or upstream supply chain of forests and timberlands, respectively, without any ESG-centric rules governing constituent eligibility and selection.

S&P DJI is seeking market feedback in order to determine whether the indices should add rules to bring them in line with traditional ESG principles.

QUESTIONS

Please answer the following questions and provide S&P DJI with the reasoning behind your answers:

- 1. Should the indices incorporate traditional ESG rules and principles?
- 2. If you answered Yes to Question 1, what specific ESG rules and principles would you like implemented in the indices?
- 3. Do you have any other comments or feedback regarding the incorporation of ESG rules and principles in the indices?

Your participation in this consultation is important as we gather information from various market participants in order to properly evaluate your views and preferences. S&P DJI will make responses to consultations freely available upon request.¹ If you do not want your response to be made available, you must clearly state that in your response.
