

Decommission of the S&P/HKEX LargeCap Indices & Update on the S&P/HKEX GEM Index Decommission.

July 17, 2026: Effective after the close of Friday, October 30, 2026, S&P Dow Jones Indices will no longer calculate end-of-day and real-time of the attached list of S&P/HKEX LargeCap Indices. In addition, the previously announced decommission of the S&P/HKEX GEM Index, sent on May 21st, 2026, with a decommission date of August 21st, 2026, will be changed to decommission the S&P/HKEX GEM Index on Friday, October 30th, 2026, to coincide with the decommission of the S&P/HKEX LargeCap Index. Some end-of-day files will be impacted, and others will no longer be posted to the S&P Dow Jones Indices SFTP (EDX) site as of that date.

This would also include NC, NCS, NS versions of the files, where applicable.

Details about the indices are provided in the link below.
