

S&P Kensho Indices Methodology Update

NEW YORK, AUGUST 19, 2026: S&P Dow Jones Indices (“S&P DJI”) announces a methodology change to the S&P Kensho Global Artificial Intelligence Enablers Screened Index and the S&P Kensho Global Cyber Security Screened Index.

S&P Kensho indices measure the performance of stocks associated with a series of technologically enabled, often disruptive industries. Companies that may be eligible for inclusion can be smaller in size, and therefore S&P Global ESG Score coverage may be delayed and/or unavailable. To better support the indices’ objective of capturing the most relevant thematic constituents, S&P DJI is removing the Global ESG Score screen:
